

Fareham Academy History Overview – Year 11

	Autumn 1	Autumn 2	Spring 1	Spring 2	Summer 1	Summer 2
Topic(s)	"A Golden age?" Elizabethan England c1568-1603	Migration, Empires and the people c790 to the present day	Migration, Empires and the people c790 to the present day	GCSE History revision Programme	GCSE History revision Programme
Topic Objectives	To demonstrate an increased depth of knowledge of key features of Elizabethan England.  To analyse the historical environment with a focus on Kenilworth Castle.	To demonstrate a firm understanding of the development of the population of Britain, from the 8th-15th centuries, in overview.  To be able to recall the beginnings of English empire-building.	To be able to show an accurate knowledge of the development, impact and decline of the British Empire.  To evaluate the positive impact of migration on Britain and the wider world.	To demonstrate an increasingly in-depth knowledge of key events, concepts and personalities.  To continue to develop key historical skills, exam technique and timing.	To demonstrate an increasingly in-depth knowledge of key events, concepts and personalities.  To continue to develop key historical skills, exam technique and timing.
Acquired Knowledge/Skills	A01: To be able to show understanding of the key features of the period of study.  A03: Continue to analyse, evaluate and deploy sources in order to make substantiated judgements.	A01: To be able to show knowledge and understanding of a broad period of History.  A02: To be able to demonstrate a sound knowledge of cause, consequence and significance.	A01: To show an increasing depth of knowledge regarding key aspects of the period of study.  A02: To understand the impact of global events on Britain's status as a world power.	A01: To be able to recount key facts, dates and concepts with confidence.  A02: To recall and deploy cause, consequence and significance of key events.	A03: To be able to analyse, evaluate and use sources in order to make substantiated judgements.  A04: To be able to explain how and why interpretations can differ.
Assessments	Practice Paper 2 Assessment  (Based on AQA past- paper)	Mock Exam  (Based on AQA past- papers 1 and 2)	Practice Paper 2 Assessment  (Based on AQA past- paper)	Practice Paper 1 Assessment  (As part of the Revision programme, students will complete and self/peer-assess an exam question every lesson)	Practice Paper 2 Assessment  (As part of the Revision programme, students will complete and self/peer-assess an exam question every lesson)	