Letter from Headteacher

Dear Applicant

I am delighted that you are expressing an interest in working at Fareham Academy. We are a caring and forward-thinking school, where academic achievement and the personal development of each child go hand in hand. Our motto “Unlocking Potential – Creating Opportunity” supported by our values of Resilience, Aspirations and Kindness captures the ambition we have for all our students.

Throughout my time as Headteacher I have consistently seen exceptional teaching and learning, which has been verified through our recent Ofsted Inspection in October 2021. I am especially proud that several members of our Middle Leadership started their careers with the school. We are committed to the development of all our staff and providing the opportunities and support to progress in their careers.

We are looking for the right person to add value to our school and be part of our exciting journey. I wish you the best of luck with the application process.

If you have any questions on the recruitment process, please email g.payne@fareham-academy.co.uk or visit our website: www.fareham-academy.hants.sch.uk

Yours faithfully,

Christopher Prankerd
Headteacher

“Developing transferrable skills such as teamwork, communication, problem solving, and innovation to better prepare students for the constantly changing world.”

Teacher of Performing Arts

We are seeking to appoint a talented and enthusiastic Teacher of Performing Arts, who has the potential and aspiration to be a consistently good or outstanding teacher, who wants to raise the attainment and ambitions of students of all abilities within this subject.

The successful individual should be ambitious and hardworking to join a diligent, enthusiastic and committed Performing Arts department. This is an exciting time to join an incredibly strong department both in terms of the teaching and support, giving you great access to a range of resources. Our successful applicant will be able to teach Drama, Music & Dance across Key Stages 3-4.

Joining the Department, you will be part of a team who pride themselves on supporting each other.

We are receptive to teachers joining us at varying stages in their career; whether you are a recently qualified teacher or one who has many years of teaching experience, we can ensure that you are developed within the department and wider academy.

We aim to support students to achieve their full potential, ensuring they are well prepared for examination, further and higher education and the world of work.

Your Opportunity

At Fareham Academy, we believe in providing students with skills to support their developing independence. The Performing Arts delivers through a series of practical and theory lessons, where students receive first-hand experience of all aspects across the department covering Dance, Music & Drama.

We are looking for a highly motivated individual who:

- Has excellent subject knowledge
- Believes in young people
- Is dynamic, innovative and inspirational in the classroom
- Is passionate about the subjects and is keen to improve standards across all year groups
- Ensures students succeed and are challenged to achieve their potential
- Has the ability to teach outstanding lessons across the age range
- Enjoys working as part of a team
- Sets high expectations of themselves and their students
- Is committed to providing access for students to a range of opportunities
- Is able to forge positive relationships with students

In return we will offer you:

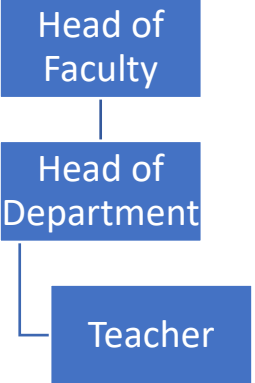

- A professional, hardworking and supportive team of staff with the capability and desire to raise student achievement
- Enthusiastic students who are willing to learn and are proud of their learning environment
- Opportunities for further professional development
- A caring and supportive working environment within a vibrant school community
- A personalised CPD programme suited to staff requirements
- Access to a network of schools to support personal and professional development
- Private Health Care

“A place where staff cultivate a desire for learning and self-improvement.”

Main Responsibilities/Activities:

This document is not designed to be a list of all tasks undertaken but an outline record of the main responsibilities and should be read in conjunction with the accompanying Job Purpose. More specifically the post holder will be expected to:

TEACHING

Set high expectations which inspire, motivate and challenge pupils

- Establish a safe and stimulating environment for pupils, rooted in mutual respect.
- Set goals that stretch and challenge pupils of all backgrounds, abilities and dispositions.
- Demonstrate consistently the positive attitudes, values and behaviour which are expected of pupils.

Promote good progress and outcomes by pupils

- Be accountable for pupils' attainment, progress and outcomes.
- Be aware of pupils' capabilities and their prior knowledge, and plan teaching to build on these.
- Guide pupils to reflect on the progress they have made and their emerging needs.
- Demonstrate knowledge and understanding of how pupils learn and how this impacts on teaching.
- Encourage pupils to take a responsible and conscientious attitude to their own work and study.

Demonstrate good subject and curriculum knowledge

- Have a secure knowledge of the relevant subject(s) and curriculum areas taught, foster and maintain pupils' interest in the subject, and address misunderstandings.
- Demonstrate a critical understanding of developments in the subject and curriculum areas.
- Demonstrate an understanding of and take responsibility for promoting high standards of literacy, articulacy and the correct use of standard English, whatever your specialist subject.
- Demonstrate an understanding of and take responsibility for promoting high standards of numeracy and the correct use of mathematical terminology, whatever your specialist subject.

Plan and teach well-structured lessons

- Impart knowledge and develop understanding through effective use of lesson time
- Promote a love of learning and children's intellectual curiosity
- Set homework and plan other out-of-class activities to consolidate and extend the knowledge and understanding pupils have acquired
- Reflect systematically on the effectiveness of lessons and approaches to teaching
- Incorporate the use of chrome books and other relevant technology in lessons where appropriate
- Contribute to the design and provision of an engaging curriculum within the relevant subject area(s).

Adapt teaching to respond to the strengths and needs of all pupils

- Know when and how to differentiate appropriately, using approaches which enable pupils to be taught effectively

- Have a secure understanding of how a range of factors can inhibit pupils' ability to learn, and how best to overcome these
- Demonstrate an awareness of the physical, social and intellectual development of children, and know how to adapt teaching to support pupils' education at different stages of development
- Have a clear understanding of the needs of all pupils, including those with special educational needs; those of high ability; those with English as an additional language; those with disabilities; those that are SEN; those who attract Pupil Premium and be able to use and evaluate distinctive teaching approaches to engage and support them in closing any gaps in attainment.

Make accurate and productive use of assessment

- Know and understand how to assess the relevant subject and curriculum areas you teach, including statutory assessment requirements
- Make use of formative and summative assessment to secure pupils' progress
- Use relevant data to monitor progress, set targets, and plan subsequent lessons
- Give pupils regular feedback, both orally and through accurate marking, and encourage pupils to respond to the feedback, giving dedicated improvement times in lessons

Manage behaviour effectively to ensure a good and safe learning environment

- Have clear rules and routines for behaviour in classrooms, and take responsibility for promoting good and courteous behaviour both in classrooms and around the school, in accordance with the Academy Behaviour Policy
- Have high expectations of behaviour and establish a framework for discipline with a range of strategies, using praise, sanctions and rewards consistently and fairly in line with the Academy expectations
- Manage classes effectively, using approaches which are appropriate to pupils' needs in order to involve and motivate them
- Maintain good relationships with pupils, exercise appropriate authority, and act decisively when necessary.

Fulfil wider professional responsibilities

- Make a positive contribution to the wider life and ethos of the Academy
- Develop effective professional relationships with colleagues, knowing how and when to draw on advice and specialist support: being prepared to adapt practice where necessary
- Deploy support staff effectively where appropriate
- Take responsibility for improving teaching through appropriate professional Development, responding to advice and feedback from colleagues
- Communicate effectively with pupils, parents and carers with regard to pupils' achievements and well-being.

PERSONAL AND PROFESSIONAL CONDUCT

A teacher is expected to demonstrate consistently high standards of personal and professional conduct as defined below:

- Act with honesty and Integrity
- Be committed to collaboration and co-operative working
- Treat pupils with dignity, building relationships rooted in mutual respect, and at all times observing proper boundaries appropriate to a teacher's professional position
- Have regard for the need to safeguard pupils' well-being, in accordance with statutory provisions
- Show tolerance of and respect for the rights of others
- Not undermining fundamental British values, including democracy, the rule of law, individual liberty and mutual respect, and tolerance of those with different faiths and beliefs
- Ensuring that personal beliefs are not expressed in ways which exploit pupils' vulnerability or might lead them to break the law.
- Have proper and professional regard for the ethos, policies and practices of the Academy, and maintain high standards in their own attendance and punctuality.
- Have an understanding of, and always act within, the statutory frameworks which set out their professional duties and responsibilities.

To build positive relationships with Pupils, Trustees, Colleagues, Educational Psychologist, Education Welfare Officer, LEA Specialist, Examiners, Educational Specialists and Outside contractors.

To comply with the requirements of Health and Safety, other relevant legislations and school policies, and understand and comply with the school's equal opportunities policy

All the above duties and responsibilities to be carried out in accordance with Fareham Academy's Policies, Standing Orders and current legislation with an emphasis on Customer Care, Equal Opportunities, Data Protection and Health and Safety. Any other duties and responsibilities appropriate to the grade and role

Please note: Academies may hold interviews as and when applications are received, and this job may be withdrawn at any point without notice. You will still be able to add information until the closing date, but you will not be able to submit your application. With this in mind, you are encouraged to apply as early as possible.

Fareham Academy is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and expect all staff and volunteers to share this commitment. All offers of employment are subject to an Enhanced DBS check, online checks and where applicable, a prohibition from teaching check will be completed for all applicants. In line with our commitments to safeguarding.
