Looked After Children and Previously looked-after children Policy

Fareham Academy believes that in partnership with Hampshire County Council and Portsmouth City Council as Corporate Parents we have a special duty to safeguard and promote the education of Looked After Children and Previously looked-after children.

1. Aim

To provide a safe and secure environment, where education is valued and there is a belief in the abilities and potential of all children.

To support our Looked After Children and Previously looked-after children and give them access to every opportunity to achieve to their potential and enjoy learning.

To fulfil our schools' role as corporate parents to promote and support the education of our Looked After Children and Previously looked-after children, by asking the question, 'Would this be good enough for my child?'

IN PURSUIT OF THIS POLICY WE WILL

- Nominate a Designated teacher for Looked After Children and Previously looked-after children who will act as their advocate and co-ordinate support for them.
- Nominate a school trustee to ensure that the needs of Looked After Children and Previously looked-after children in the school are taken into account at a school management level and to support the Designated Teacher.

These changes are in response to the recommendations made in the Children in Need Review and the Domestic Abuse White Paper

2. Definition of a child in care

The term Children Looked After has a specific legal meaning based on the Children Act. A child is looked after by a local authority if he or she has been provided with accommodation for a continuous period of more than 24 hours, in the circumstances set out in sections 20 and 21 of the Children Act 1989, or is placed in the care of a local authority by virtue of an order made under part IV of the Act.

Looked After Children and Previously looked-after children Policy

The majority of children who are looked after by the local authority are placed with foster carers as it is believed to be best for children to live within a family environment. For some children however, residential care may be more appropriate.

Definition of a Previously Looked-After Child

Previously looked-after children are those who are no longer looked after by a local authority in England and Wales (as defined by the Children Act 1989 or Part 6 of the Social Services and Well-being (Wales) Act 2014) because they are the subject of:

- an adoption
- special guardianship or
- child arrangements order; or were adopted from 'state care' outside England and Wales. 'State care' is care provided by a public authority, a religious organisation, or any other organisation whose sole or main purpose is to benefit society.

The majority of children who are looked after by the local authority are placed with foster carers as it is believed to be best for children to live within a family environment. For some children however, residential care may be more appropriate.
