

Fareham Academy PRE Overview – Year 8

	Autumn 1	Autumn 2	Spring 1	Spring 2	Summer 1	Summer 2
Topic(s)	Should animals have rights?		What does it mean to be a Muslim?		What does it mean to be a philosopher?
Topic Objectives	Develop our understanding of the purpose of ethics. Develop our understanding of ethical situations and their relationship with religion. Gain an understanding of the key ethical dilemmas surrounding animals being held in captivity.		Understanding what it means to be a Muslim in the 21st century. Understanding the key beliefs and practices in the Islamic faith. Gain an understanding of the key individuals who played a role in the foundation of Islam.		Develop our understanding of the purpose of philosophy. Develop our understanding of philosophical questions and their relationship with religion. Gain an understanding of the key philosophical questions relating to morality and the existence of God.
Acquired Knowledge/Skills	Understanding different ethical situations in the world. Forming individual opinions of ethical topics. Applying religious knowledge to ethical dilemmas.		Core beliefs and practices in the Islamic faith. Understanding the importance of being tolerant and respectful of different faiths and beliefs. Understanding the relevance of Islam in modern society.		Understanding different arguments for the existence of evil and suffering in the world. Understanding different arguments for and against the existence of God. Understanding different arguments for and against human morality.
Assessments	Extended piece of writing focused on our key enquiry question around animals in captivity.		End of unit assessment which includes an extended piece of writing based on Islamic beliefs and practices.		End of unit assessment which includes an extended piece of writing based on the philosophical questions studied in the unit.	